DORE NAMED HEAD BASKETBALL COACH

Concordia Athletic Director Bob Philip has appointed John Dore as Head Basketball Coach effective immediately. Dore, a graduate of Concordia University (1975), had been assistant coach with the Stingers for eight seasons. The 36 year old native of New York City is a former player at Concordia and a member of the 10 year Dream Team. He averaged 15.7 points per game over four seasons at guard and was named a conference All-Star on three occasions. After graduation, Dore was offered a contract to tour with the Harlem Globetrotters opposition team.

Dore brings to the Stingers a wealth of coaching experience at all levels. Before joining the Stinger coaching staff in 1981, Dore coached Vanier College for two seasons. He is presently the Athletic Director at St. George's High School in Montreal and helps coach the touring Sun Youth "Youth-East" team. He also runs the Fast Break Basketball Camp, one of the province's most successful camps.

Only the Stingers second head coach, Dore and his wife Malka live in the Town of Mount Royal with daughters Lisa (9) and Lauren (6).
